- (2) Defendant was born in the Soviet Union. He has resided in the United States since 1993 and is a United States citizen. His wife and two children reside in Seattle with him. The rest of his family reside in the Ukraine. He has traveled to the Ukraine on a number of occasions since moving to the United States.
- (3) According to Pretrial Services, the defendant is the subject of a protection order prohibiting him from any contact with his ex-wife, and prohibits him from possessing and/or purchasing a firearm or other weapon.
- (4) Defendant poses a risk of flight due to his contacts in the Ukraine, lack of ties to this District, with the exception of his Ukrainian-born wife and two children, and frequent, recent travel overseas. He presents a risk of danger due to the nature of the charges which involved the alleged importation of a significant quantity of firearms and firearm parts into the United States. In addition, the inference, if the instant charges are proven, that he violated a protection order restricting him from possessing or purchasing firearms or weapons, would establish a history of violating court orders.
- (5) There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
